DATE : February 4, 2026

SUBJECT : "Leading with Heart and SEL for Success: Building Caring and Supportive School Communities" (District Pilot – Ligao South 1 & School Pilot – Paulba Elementary School)

1. This Office announces the conduct of the Training–Orientation and Capacity Building on the Social and Emotional Learning (SEL) District Pilot Implementation, anchored on the theme 'Leading with Heart and SEL for Success: Building Caring and Supportive School Communities.' The activity shall be implemented in Ligao South 1 District as the District Pilot and in Paulba Elementary School as the School Pilot, and will be held on February 18–19, 2026 at Paulba Elementary School

1. In support of the Department of Education's thrust toward holistic, learner-centered, and inclusive education, this program shall be implemented through capacity building activities such as training and orientation designed to strengthen SEL integration in school practices.

2. Specifically, the SEL Pilot Implementation aims to achieve the following objectives:

- a. Enhance understanding of Social and Emotional Learning (SEL) principles among school leaders and teachers to promote a caring and supportive school environment.
- b. Equip participants with practical strategies and tools for integrating SEL into classroom instruction and school-wide programs.
- c. Strengthen collaboration among educators in Ligao South 1 District and Paulba Elementary School to sustain SEL initiatives and share best practices.
